“How We Got to Now Summary” We’ve said it before, we’ll say it again: Everything evolves. However, evolution isn’t merely “the survival of the fittest.” It’s also often “the survival of the interconnected.” You see, nothing evolves in isolation. And, consequently, symbiotic relationships are, by definition, all around us. So much so that Dorion Sagan and Lynn Margulis in “The Origins of Sex,” wrote quite aptly that “life did not take over the globe by combat, but by ... I call it HOW WE GOT TO NOW. I decided to undertake this project because I was having a tough time understanding the world around me. I realized that reading the news/memorizing headlines was VERY different than understanding the processes that run our world. I also realized that I wasn't the only one with this issue.
