F1 builds on knowledge from paper C2 and introduces tax at a very basic level; it is not based on any tax regime. Financial reporting is a major part of the syllabus, both single company and group accounts are examined in the two '25-mark' questions in section C. New financial reporting topics introduced at this level are: group accounts; construction contracts; financial instruments; and leases. It has four main sections: The principles of business taxation The principles of regulation of financial reporting Preparation of financial statements which conform with IFRS Consolidated financial statements The study text concentrates on the key areas of the syllabus, taking into account the way in which topics are examined. The text has a step-by-step approach to producing financial statements and lots of exercises in which you can practice the workings. We guide you through the more problematic topics which can be brought into the preparation of single company and group financial statements, and give you plenty of examples.

The examiner has reviewed the Study Text, which concentrates on the key areas of the syllabus and takes account of the examiner's guidance on how topics will be examined. It includes a step-by-step approach to topics that students may find difficult, such as control account reconciliations and suspense accounts. There are lots of examples and questions in each chapter to help you practise the techniques.

The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) is the global body for professional accountants. With over 100 years of providing world-class accounting and finance qualifications, the ACCA has significantly raised its international profile in recent years and now supports a BSc (Hons) in Applied Accounting and an MBA. BPP Learning Media is an ACCA Official Publisher. P2 is a very challenging paper which builds on the knowledge and skills acquired at earlier levels in the preparation and analysis of financial reports for single entities and groups. It takes these areas to a higher level, putting into context the role of the accountant as a professional steward and adviser, who is responsible to the stakeholders of an organisation. It has five main sections: 1. Regulatory and ethical framework and current issues 2. Reporting the financial performance of entities 3. Group financial statements 4. Specialised entities 5. Analysis of the financial performance of entities. The main new topics introduced at this level relate to group accounts, but other topics are tested with a different emphasis and in more depth than at the Fundamentals Level. We provide material for both International and UK streams. International is now the ACCA main stream. The study text has been reviewed by the examiner and takes account of his advice on approaching the paper. Ethics, which have an impact on all aspects of financial reporting, are introduced at an early stage in the text, as is corporate social responsibility, so that students do not neglect these topics when covering the numerical areas. Accounting standards come next, combining revision with extension into more advanced areas. After a brief revision of basic groups, the more advanced consolidation topics are covered. Current issues are covered throughout the text within the appropriate topics, and also summarised in a final chapter. The question bank contains practice at the case study-style question you will encounter in the real exam.
